New Distributor Registration

The image shows the top portion of the SriMedica Medicare Ecommerce website. The header includes the company logo, a navigation menu with 'Home', 'Products', and 'Bulk Order', a search bar with the placeholder 'Search Here...', and icons for user login, shopping cart, and customer support. The hero section features a blue-tinted background with a 3D anatomical model of a human spine. A text box on the left describes cervical splints, and a product list on the right includes items like 'Hard Collar', 'Soft Collar', 'Bed Traction Kit', and 'Cervical Traction Kit'. A red arrow points from the text 'Click here for new distributor registration' to the 'Register As A Distributor' link in the footer.

Cervical Splints

Out of the 33 bones called the Vertebrae in the spine - the first seven are the cervical vertebrae. The spinal cord attached to the brain passes through these vertebrae all the way down the spine. The most important function of the cervical spine is protection of neural structures that traverse it. Ligaments and muscles control the movements of the vertebrae. They allow rotation, forward bending (flexion), backward bending (extension) and sideways (lateral) bending.
